

LOVELAND SKI CLUB
2016-2017 Volunteer Handbook
with
DESCRIPTION OF VOLUNTEER POSITIONS FOR RACES

Objective

The purpose of this Handbook is to provide the Loveland Ski Club Families a description source for their Volunteer obligations, and a description of positions associated with our obligation of Race Volunteering.

Club Member Obligations

Volunteering for races is a very important aspect of being a member of the Loveland Ski Club. We have a very strong tradition of involving the families in ski races. Having a volunteer staff for these events helps us to host a safe and well run event as well as helps keep tuition prices lower for the entire club. In fact, part of the Club's requirement is to volunteer a minimum amount of days. At the time of registration, a deposit is taken and will be returned, or applied to next year's tuition, to cover the volunteer requirement.

The following table details the required days, based on the program the athlete is in:

2016-2017 LSC Volunteer & Work Deposit Information

Program	Work Deposit	Required Volunteer Days
Alpine Race Academy	N/A	2 Derby Days
Junior Team	$640.00	2 Derby days + 6 Days
High School Team	$520.00	2 Derby days + 4 Days
YSL Team	$520.00	2 Derby days + 4 Days
All Mountain Freeride Team	$340.00	2 Derby days + 2 Days
Junior All Mountain Team	$340.00	2 Derby days + 2 Days
Advanced D-Team	$340.00	2 Derby days + 2 Days
D-Team	$170.00	2 Derby days

Work deposits for the 2016-17 season are assessed at registration, due in-full October 1st, 2016, or before your athlete's first day of training. Work deposits must be paid in order to receive your season pass.

Although credit toward family work deposits is only awarded for advertised events, there are many pre and post race tasks that need to be completed and volunteering during these times is not only very needed but also very much appreciated. If you are able to volunteer beyond your required volunteer days, please contact us. Volunteers are needed year round and any amount of time you can dedicate to the club is always very much appreciated.

NEW FOR 2015-2016 SEASON: EVERY family must work BOTH Derby Days in April in order to receive their work deposit refund.

Volunteer Opportunities for 2016-2017 :

Review the 2016-2017 LSC Family Volunteer Tracking Spreadsheet throughout the season at this link: LSC Family Volunteer Tracking This spreadsheet is updated shortly after each event.

LSC Refundable Family Work Deposits

The purpose of the LSC Family Work Deposit program is to involve all families during races hosted by LSC and also to provide an opportunity to reduce overall tuition cost. The club's success depends on families volunteering their time.

In order to help assure that the club receives the required volunteer support, a work deposit is assigned to each athlete program at the time of registration. For families with MULTIPLE ATHLETES at LSC, the work deposit is based on the athlete's program with the highest work deposit amount. It is important to note that contributions' towards the total work days is considered as total family contributions ! LSC requires all members to support the club through a minimum number of volunteer days or forfeit their refundable work deposits.

The family work deposit payment is kept in an escrow account. At the end of the ski season (after Derby in April), volunteer days worked are finalized and refunds for days worked issued or rolled into the next season's deposit requirement. PARTIAL REFUNDS of work deposit are possible if you do not complete your family volunteer days (provided that you worked the mandatory 2 days during the Loveland Derby). Many families exceed the number of days required. Families who work extra days will be credited at $75/day up to $150/maximum credit toward the NEXT season's tuition. This is ONLY applicable to next season's tuition - not returned in cash. Extra volunteer days are needed, but no additional compensation can be provided.

Volunteer Credit

Volunteers must sign up on the signup Genius prior to each event in order to get credit for the days worked. Some positions are only available to volunteers who are certified officials (Referees, Chief of timing, Race Administration, etc). If you are interested in volunteering in a position that requires certification, please check out the Rocky Mountain Ski race Officials webpage at <http://www.rmsro.org>. Most positions do not require any certification and many positions don't even require any experience. There are many opportunities as well to those volunteers who do not ski.

FAQs

Does my family have to work during the Derby?

All members are REQUIRED to work the Loveland Derby in mid April. This is a very large end of season race hosted by Loveland and represents a substantial revenue source for the club and requires "all hands on deck" to put on a quality event. All members must volunteer BOTH days at the Derby. If you do not meet this requirement, your ENTIRE WORK DEPOSIT will be forfeited. The 2 day requirement for Derby volunteering is mandatory to receive ANY of the work deposit back.

What are Complimentary Lift Tickets?

Loveland Ski Area will provide race volunteers a single day comp pass for each day of volunteering during advertised events. Certain events may offer a larger number of passes. Any special comp pass arrangements will be announced for those specific events. Comp Passes can be used anytime during the season and expire at the end of the current season. Exceptions to this include comp passes during the Loveland Derby. These passes will expire at the end of the following season.

Who can be a Volunteer for LSC?

A relative or friend can volunteer on your behalf provided they are in good standing with the ski area and LSC. When signing up, the person should indicate which family to allocate credit to.

If you have experience or an interest with organizing events, fundraising activities, or marketing and would like to become involved with one of these committees, please contact charrington@lovelandskiclub.com.

Loveland Ski Club is looking forward to welcoming you as a volunteer. Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions.

Safety

First and foremost, The Loveland Ski Club is concerned for the Safety of it's Volunteers on Race Day.

A few very important aspects of the Volunteer process:

1. Please consider the Job you are signing up for to ensure that it is within your capabilities.
2. Be aware that some positions are outside, for an extended period of time. Be prepared for this in advance by bringing a backpack with the following:
Sunblock, Food, Water, Hand-warmers, Boot-warmers, Chair, Carpet square to stand on (keeps the feet warm), Extra pencils, Extra gloves, Toilet Paper/Kleenex, Rule Book (certified positions)
3. Be aware of you own personal situation. Please, if you are getting too cold, or if you are experiencing any other issues, please let someone know. NO JOB IS TOO IMPORTANT TO PUT YOURSELF INTO DANGER

The Following is a brief description of the various Volunteer Positions:

In general, there are 2 categories of Volunteer Positions for Race Day: Outside and Inside positions. Note: Those positions with an asterisk need to have advanced training.

The following details the Outside Volunteer Positions:

TECHNICAL DELEGATE*

The Technical Delegate is assigned by the USSA or FIS. The TD is responsible for the technical and safety aspects of the race.

REFEREE*

This position is usually a visiting coach and is appointed by the Technical Delegate. This position requires course work, certification and experience.

CHIEF OF RACE*

The Chief of Race is a member of the local organizing committee with the overall responsibility for all aspects of the race.

CHIEF OF COURSE*

The primary responsibility of the Chief of Course is the preparation of the course, both snow and protection installations. The Chief of Course will direct and supervise the various crews to accomplish all hill preparation and course maintenance.

CHIEF GATE JUDGE*

This person shall have taken the USSA CO class, must have good skiing ability on icy race-prepared courses and must have organizational and presentation skills.

December 30, 2016

Responsibility: Conducts the meeting with Gate Judges to explain the functions of the Gate Judge and distributes bibs, clipboards, pencils and gate judge cards. Assembles Gate Judges at the Start of the course and assigns gates to each Gate Judge. Ensures that gates are counted and numbered. Collects gate judge cards after each run and delivers them to the Referee. Ensures that Gate Judges that have recorded faults are present for jury discussion if necessary.

Demands of the job: Arrive before 7:00 a.m. to ensure that all needed gate judge supplies are present. Have a thorough understanding of race organization and fair passage rules.

GATE JUDGE

Typically considered the entry level job as the training is done verbally the morning of the race. Check-in by 7:00 a.m. Meet with the Chief Gate Judge to cover job responsibilities and the day's schedule.

Responsibility: The Chief Gate Judge positions you on the hill and assigns you 3 to 5 gates to judge. The athlete must go through the gates correctly or you will document their "fault" and the racer will be disqualified. Gate Judges must remain at their station until dismissed by the Chief Gate Judge.

Demands of the job: Stand on the hill for 2 or 3 hours before and after a lunch break. You can bring a chair if you can position yourself to see the assigned gates and are out of the racers way. You must watch every racer as he/she comes through. You have to note the bib number of any racer that incorrectly passes one of your gates. It's important to be on time, and to go to the short orientation in the morning. You may be able to walk to gates assigned near the finish, but you should come prepared to ski to your station. All gate judges should watch the USSA Gate Judge Video before reporting to work.

RUNNER

December 30, 2016

Take items to various people involved in the race. This could include on-hill positions.

STARTER

The person who tells the racer to go, talks to the timing shack on the headset and takes care of the wand at the starting gate.

Responsibility: Be at the start 30 minutes early; Repeat the correct cadence for each racer to start. Close the wand after each racer goes through. Communicate with the timing shack.

Demands of the job: Stand for long times in the cold, may not get a lunch break. Must be able to ski and should have adequate clothing to stay on the top all day. Must be able to stoop to close the wand after each racer and be comfortable using a headset.

ASSISTANT STARTER

This person calls out the racers in order to line them up for their starts. This is especially important during the second run when race numbers are starting out of order, based on first-run finish places. Should be at the start 30 minutes before the start of race.

Responsibility: Keep several racers in line at all times so that the pace of the race is maintained. Communicate with start referee if a racer has not shown up for his or her start.

Demands of the job: Call racers' numbers and/or names to let them know they have to get lined up. (Having a voice that carries is helpful.) Notify the Start Ref of any racer on the start list who is not present. This job takes place at the top of the course where it is typically colder.

SCOREBOARD RECORDER

This person is the one who writes all the athletes' names on the scoreboard and their times as each athlete finishes.

Responsibility: Arrive early to have time write out all the athletes' names, often 150 to 200 racers. Carry the poster to the finish line; mount on the scoreboards at the finish line. Write each athlete's time as the announcer reports it over the loud speaker.

Demands of the job: Arrive by 7:00 am. Fill out poster with start list as a guide. Stand at the bottom of the course. You could bring a chair, but may not have much opportunity to use it while writing down the times. (It can also be somewhat difficult to hear the times with all the background noise.) The Poster collects racer bibs at the end of the day as well, or helps remind racers to leave their bibs as they finish the second run of the day. May be required to wear a headset.

HAND TIMER and RECORDER

Also trained on race day before going out on the hill. Check-in by 7:00 a.m. Meet in Race Administration to synchronize watches.

Responsibility: Positioned at the start or finish line running a stop watch or recording the stop watch time for each racer.

Demands of the job: Standing or sitting (if you bring a chair) for 2 or 3 hours before and after a lunch break. You must record the racers bib number and focus on each athletes start (or finish) with the intent to be consistent and accurate. Hand times are used every race to verify electronic times and replace an electronic time in the event of computer failure. You need glove liners, often hand warmers and to be prepared with extra clothes for cold days. You can walk up to the finish but you do not often know ahead of time if you will be at the finish or the start so being prepared to ski is best.

CHIEF OF TIMING *

This is the person running the computer in the timing shack, and has an assistant timer with him or her. They are responsible for the coordination of officials at the start and finish, including timing and calculations. The Chief Timer job requires certification classes by RMSRO, similar to referee classes.

Responsibility: This person and one other set up the start and finish lines, electronic eyes, and the computer. They run tests to make sure the timing and communication are working. They trouble shoot any issues before, during, and after a race, and use a computer program to record the official times for each racer. Synchronize watches for the hand timers.

Demands of the job: The shack workers are on the hill at 7 am, setting everything up. They may or may not have time to eat breakfast or lunch during the day. Everyone is looking to them to get it right because: if there is no timing there is no race”. Computer trouble shooting is often necessary and an understanding of the software is needed. Often the second person is in training and takes care of the electronic printouts (tapes) during the race. There is hand calculation of times needed and forms to fill out during the day and at the end of each race. START OR FINISH

FINISH REFEREE*

Finish Referee is responsible for the finish area and for documenting each racer that crosses the finish line; watches the last 2 gates due to additional rules that apply to these gates, verifies a clear course before racers are sent and is a jury adviser when protests are made by racers that are disqualified. A new USSA rule this year is that they must be present at the finish when the course is open for inspection. Responsible that the finish is built properly and maintained.

Responsibility: Ensure that the finish line is marked with dye. Particular attention to protection and course security. Responsible that finish fences above and below finish are built and maintained properly. Assist with PA systems, score boards and finish area needs. The Start Referee is responsible for “start stops” and clearing the course. Must document each racer that starts, notifies timing and jury of any changes to the order of the racers starting, and provides bibs to racers who do not have a bib. Communicates with jury members via the jury radio and opens and closes inspection of the course by racers. Is responsible for building and maintaining the start properly and that a level start ramp exists. Makes sure the start fences are properly built and maintained. Assists with setting up starting equipment. Posts 2nd run start order lists.

Demands of the job: The Finish Referee is at the finish line for 1 -2 hours before the start depending on when the course is opened for inspection. (Lunch break may or may not happen, depending on number of racers). Keeps focused on the race, knows correct radio protocol and communicates as needed with other jury members. Takes forerunners' course report before reach race. You must be prepared for any weather with adequate clothing etc. The Start Referee is on the hill early 1 -2 hours before the start of the race. He or she must be present to open the course for inspection. Often does not get a lunch break off the hill. The start is often colder and therefore often requires adequate clothing, snacks, hand warmers, etc. Must communicate with jury and know appropriate radio protocol. Ensures the forerunners and race begin on time by coordinating with timing, course crew, chief gate judge and officials.

ANNOUNCER

Responsibility: Read off racers names and times over the loud speaker in the midst of the chaos that is the timing shack. Arrive at 7:00 a.m. to help set up timing system.

Demands of the job: Speak loudly, focus on task, and avoid distracting the timing crew. This is the entry level to working in the timing shack on the computer as it gives you a chance to observe how the chief timer and backup timer run the race on the computer.

COURSE CREW

Responsibility: Arrive early, on the hill by 7:00 am. Course crew assists with the entire race set up, maintenance and tear down. Course crew must be present at each reset of the course. Course crew reports to the chief of course. They slip, shovel and rake the course to keep the track smooth. They also replace broken gates. These people also help set up B-nets, finish and start arena and other fences. Their day ends when all equipment is put away. Course crew needs to understand race hill etiquette to avoid collisions with racers. Understand how a race course is groomed to provide the most consistent and safe course for all racers. LRC requires that all Course Crew attend an on-hill course as a prerequisite to holding this position. Please watch for an announcement of this class, early season, when snow conditions permit.

Demands of the job: Physically able to ski all day long, (most times in a sideslip or snowplow.) able to carry equipment and nets while skiing, no set lunch hour as often the course crew is setting the afternoon course while everyone else is a lunch. Course crew is first on the hill and last to leave, making this a higher time commitment job than most. Course Crew must have completed a ½ day course taught by LSC Director or must otherwise be approved by the Director.

Inside Positions:

RACE ADMINISTRATOR*

The Race Administrator is responsible for all the race entries, start lists, and reporting race results. This person takes all the computer or hand time results from the timers and then generates results. This is usually a paid position and requires extensive previous race work experience.

VOLUNTEER CHECK IN/OUT

Check in volunteers and distribute necessary items to them required for their position. Distribute volunteer lunches at lunchtime. Check volunteers out at end of day and distribute comp tickets.

TICKET SALES AND AWARDS

Sell tickets to racers and parents at registration. Organize awards for distribution.

December 30, 2016

BIBS (BIB BOARD, BIB COLLECTING, BIB SORTING)

Put the bibs on the bib board so that they can be collected by athletes/coaches. Collect bibs from athletes after the race. Sort bibs at the end of the race in groups of 10, bundled together, for both Male and Female Athletes

Extra things to bring/think about when ‘on the job’:

December 30, 2016

This Waiver will need to be completed on-line from this link prior to you being able to sign in as a volunteer: <http://lovelandskiclub.com/volunteer/>. It is included here only as a reference.

USSA Volunteer Competition Worker Registration Form

Read the following warnings carefully before signing this form. This is a waiver of certain legal rights:

Ski and snowboard competitions involve many inherent risks, dangers and hazards. These risks, dangers and hazards may exist at any time and at any place in and around the competition course or facility. They may threaten not only the competitors themselves, but may also threaten me as a competition worker.

Due to high speeds, slick surfaces and icy conditions, you will be at risk of being struck by competitors and/or runaway equipment. While you must pay close attention to the intervals between competitors, you must also be aware that such intervals are sometimes irregular. You must pay special attention to competitor fall zones and likely trajectories of competitors who may lose control and/or fall. If you have any questions or concerns about fall zones and/or trajectories, you should inquire with a member of the Competition Jury.

The Competition Jury is responsible for controlling the competition. You must comply with all instructions of the Jury regarding opening and closing of courses, and regarding your positioning and conduct on the course. However, given the unpredictability of ski and snowboard competition and the winter mountain environment, following the advice of Competition Jury members or any other person does not and cannot guarantee your safety. If you believe that complying with a Competition Jury instruction would expose you to risk of injury, you should clearly state your concern to a Jury member and state your intention not to follow the instruction.

Competition equipment may be cumbersome and heavy. Exercise caution in carrying and handling such equipment to avoid injury from strain or exertion, particularly when working on steep and uneven terrain. Also, pay attention to climatic conditions and protect yourself from exposure and dehydration.

Side-slipping of competition courses involves many of the risks and dangers inherent in the sport of skiing. These risks may be exacerbated by short time periods between competitors in which side-slipping must be completed. If you lack advanced skiing skills or are otherwise unwilling to assume the risks inherent in this activity, do not participate in side-slipping of courses.

Consumption of alcohol or illegal drugs by competition workers in USSA competitions is strictly prohibited.

By affixing my signature below, I represent that I am over the age of eighteen (18) years of age, have read the foregoing warnings and in spite of the risks, dangers and hazards involved in such activities, I nevertheless choose to volunteer my services as a USSA Competition Worker. By so doing, I agree to release, indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the United States Ski and Snowboard Association, its employees, affiliates, insurers, officials and sponsors from any and all claims arising from my participation as a competition worker regardless of negligence. I also understand and agree that as a volunteer I am not entitled to workers compensation coverage for injuries arising from my participation in these activities and agree not to seek coverage under USSA's workers compensation insurance.
